~ Obituary ~

Clement Earl "Pee Wee" Johnson was born March 24, 1952 to the late Zebedee and Oleavia Johnson. Also born to that union were his siblings Zelma Lee Johnson, sister; and brother, John Lee "Bro" Johnson. Pee Wee, as he was known to all was raised in Richmond, CA. where he was loved by all that he came into contact with. As an adult, he found his craft as a carpenter and worked for over 15 years as a contractor building homes in the El Sobrante and Hercules, CA area, until he retired due to a back injury. As an adventurer and risk taker he was fond of motorcycles and his love of riding motorcycles prompted him to own and build several bikes up until his passing.

He was a dedicated & dutiful son who spent considerable time caring for his loving mother until she passed on in the early 90's. He then dedicated his time to remodeling his childhood home where he settled in with his loving wife Ruth "Cuca" Johnson. Again, the adventurer in him led him to Richmond, Texas with his wife where they built a new home and life together.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his loving wife, Ruth "Cuca" Johnson, his children, Earl Johnson, Antoine Johnson, Yolanda Johnson, Damien Johnson & Sherrell Johnson. A very special niece, Melva "Toot" Carter, his grandchildren, Antoine Jr, Antonio, Antiana, Damauria, Jabari, Jamory, Akara, Damien Jr, Damesha, Damionna, Daja, Geovanni, Dalaija, Marlon, Mariejanae, Eric, Arielle, Earl Jr., Enyah, and Marquelle and two generations of nieces and nephews along with a host of relatives and friends.
